

IT WAS BORN SO

Stranger in town—"So that is the haunted house? What gave it such a significance?"

Resident—"Well, there's been something uncanny about it from the beginning. Even when it was built it did not exceed the contractor's estimate."—Life.

Insured His Thumb Nail.

Charles Heinsey, a grainer employed in Newton, N. J., has taken out an accident insurance policy of $50 on the thumb nail of his right hand. He keeps the nail one and a half inches long and uses it almost entirely in his business of graining, as it works much better than an artificial grainer.

Several times the nail has been broken and each time he has lost money by being idle until it grew again. With a $50 insurance he won't feel the layoff so much.—Delaware Express.

British Business Methods

"Has your son brought back any business methods from London?"

"Oh, yes. He thinks he ought to serve tea afternoons and that all the stenographers ought to be blondes."—Pittsburgh Post.

The "Popular Airs."

Jiggins—Who was it that said if he could make the songs of the people he wouldn't care who made the laws?

ADOLF CHOOSES NO

Muggins—Don't know. But if he's the chap who's making the songs of the people nowadays, I'd just like to have the making of the laws a little while. That's all!—Red Hen.

A Poser.

Tommy—say, pop.

Tommy's Pop—Well, what is it now?

Tommy—If heaven is a place of perfect peace where do all the policemen go when they die?—Philadelphia Record.

The man who can think out a problem without the aid of a jack-knife and a splinter is some thinker, but a poor sort of self-entertainer.
